NAS activities:

We provide newsletters through the year with details of local events, society meetings and visits. The journal Northamptonshire Archaeology, which is free to all members, contains reports on excavations, notes on recent fieldwork and finds, and book reviews.

We arrange site visits to local excavations or other places of interest, led by specialists and often not open to the general public

We have an AGM in October/November in Northampton, with a guest speaker, and arrange other meetings and events.

We do not run archaeological excavations or other fieldwork, but can recommend local groups who do.
